

THESIS MASTER'S DEGREE EDUCATION PROCESSES

Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree in the relevant field or in a field determined by the opinion of the department/main art department, the decision of the Institute's Executive Board, and the approval of the Senate.

An ALES exam is not required for master's programs related to Fine Arts.

Applicants must have a standard score of no less than 55 from the ALES centrally administered by ÖSYM (Student Selection and Placement Center) in the score type of the program they are applying for, an ALES standard score determined by the Senate, or an equivalent score from an exam deemed equivalent to the ALES by the Interuniversity Board.

Applicants must meet the minimum application/success requirements approved by the University Senate for the relevant semester.
